Mrs. Laura C. Phoenix, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Matron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, comes my desire for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1890, I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. I still continue its occasional use, as a nerve food, as my work is very trying. A letter addressed to Milwaukee, Wis., will reach me."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 bottles for $2.00 or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Orchestra under the direction of Prof. S. Schlossinger. Tickets on sale at the Corner Drug Store.

Chief of Police Prince announces that he will strictly enforce the "vag" act. Let it be enforced on all alike; against the fine haired dead beats, who "toil not, neither do they spin," but sit and eat regular on money earned by the sweat of the brow of some one else. The poor, ragged, half clad hobo is often worthy of pity, and is a gentleman compared to the well dressed, fat, sleek "bum," who lives by his wits at the expense of other people.

PERSONAL MENTION.
J. W. Wilson and B. H. Smith will arrive to-morrow from their eastern trip.

Jasper Fredericks, who has been quite ill, is able to be on the streets again.

An emissary of the A. P. A. organization, from the southern part of the territory, is said to have been working on the quiet here for several days, with a view of establishing a lodge here. He received no encouragement, however, and was compelled to leave without accomplishing his object.

Alex. Moss, who returned recently from the insane asylum at Phoenix, was sent to the county hospital today, awaiting information from Phoenix as to whether he is an escapee or not from there. If he has been regularly discharged, it will necessitate another examination, as he is evidently still unbalanced mentally. If he is an escapee he can be returned without any further action of the authorities.

The Phoenix Republican fails to reach Prescott now until late in the afternoon, several hours after the arrival of the other Phoenix papers, hence it is kind of stale when it gets here. Sunday morning's issue was not received until late Monday afternoon, as there is no mail on Sunday. The Herald and Gazette come by express while the Republican has switched to the mail.

M. J. Hickey, with two assistants, with the aid of some horse, stinkled the street this morning in front of the Hotel Burke from the well on the northwest corner of the plaza. The prisoners in the county jail could be used for this work every day, and it would prove quite beneficial. It would afford them good, healthy exercise for a short period every day, and the opportunity of doing so would probably be appreciated by them.
